II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

The State of South Carolina has designated the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division ("SLED") as the agency responsible for issuing carry permits in the State of South Carolina. As the attached documentation makes clear, the State of South Carolina will not issue a permit to those who do not reside in the State (a resident), nor to those who do not own property in the State (a qualified resident). In so doing, the State of South Carolina is directly infringing upon my Second Amendment rights as clearly laid out in the United States Constitution. I do business frequently in the State of South Carolina, and relief is not available in New Jersey, which has what amounts to a complete, unconstitutional ban on carrying any type of weapon in public.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Plaintiff is asking the Court to immediately direct the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division to issue carry permits for handguns to non-residents, and to state that all other states must accept a permit issued in the State of South Carolina, since in New Jersey, where I currently reside, absolutely no relief is available in state courts, which are controlled directly by the Governor as per the New Jersey Constitution.
